Shortly after 8 o'clock last night three teamsters, R. A. Smith, J. H. Marvin and J. D. Smithson who had ed. left. Globe in the afternoon, returned bringing the startling news of the killing of a teamster, named Coster, by an Indian. The facts as learned are as follows: About sundown as eight coke outfits, en route to Globe, were toiling along the road three miles west of Gilson's wells, and nine miles east of Globe, two Indians, one on foot and one riding a fat sorrel mare, who had been hovering about the teams nearly all day, approached Cos ter's wagons, which were about the middle ones of the outfit, and the Indian riding, without the slightest warning, and when within fifteen feet Beam, 8 inches square. The stay reds are 2-inch iron, the shooting the Indian on foot ran up and snatched a rifle from the helster hanging on the footboard of Coster's wagon, and both Indians then fled, going north. The seven teamsters with Coster were so completely the edges to prevent the whey running taken by surprise that they allowed the Indians to escape, without attempting pursoit, although two shots were fired after them.

Smith, Marvin and Smithson were several hundred vards distant from the scene of the murder when it oc curred, near enough to distinctly hear the shots. When they arrived on the ground they viewed Coster's body and conversed with his companions. They assert that there was no provocation whatever for the deed, and it is the general belief that they killed Coster olely for the purpose of securing his gun. Coster was from Texas and had wife and child at Wilcox, Arizona.

Justice Atkins, acting-coroner, Deity Sheriff Ryan and a number of Globe men left late last night for the scene of the murder, to hold an inquest. Coster's body will be brought land. He must remember that he is dependent upon others, as others are upon im. He must bring contentment, tience and a home love into his work. The farmer must remember that he is a citizen, and the citizen should be public spirited. A man is sometimes said to have reached the top round in the ladder, but if he has reached the top by pulling others down, who like himself were climbing round by round, we can hardly all his effort a success. So if the farmer has grown rich in lands and money by making others poorer, we do not class him with the successful farmer. cess in life means intelligence, brotherly love, honesty, public spirit, generos-ity and a desire to do right, not from mere policy, but from the heart.

An Answer to the Questien, "What Con stock and farm." Yes, but while his fields are fertile his home is a desert.

OFFICE SHERIFF PINAL COUNTY . Floasser, Astrona, Fee, 2, 1889.
Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the District Court of the Second Judicial Districi, Territory of Arizona, in and for Final County, at the next ensuing term thereof, for judgment against the lands, real estate, and arrowal property described in the above and largeging lists, for said taxes, costs and interest, and for an order to sell the same for the estication thereof; and I also give notice that on the Monday next succeeding the day term of the District Court, all the land, real estate, personal property, for the sale of which an order shall have been made, will be exposed for sale at the Court House, Florence, Pinal County, Arizona Territory, for the amount of rest and costs due ther JERE FRYER, Ex-officio Tax Collector, Pinal County, Arizona. It is given out on good authority that a plan has been effected by which four hundred more Mormon families are to be settled in the Salt River Valley in the vicinity of the Highland Canal. The object is two faced, the first is speculation. The land and canal are under the control of a syndicate who proposes to sub-divide the land into four acre tracts and sell 11 64 them with water rights to the heads of families. In this speculation there will be a clean profit of over one hun-17 39 dred thousand dollars to the syndicate and is legitimate as they will no doubt give full value to the purchasers for their money. The second and not the least important object to some of the membera of the project is the fact there is to be five hundred voters who will vote as the church dictates and which vote will control the politics of Maricopa county, which county will have a very large representation in the next legislature. And as it is fondly hoped by some politicians that the next legis-Liture will elect a United States Senator &c., &c., the gist of the Mormon 13 88 colonizing business is made apparent. 00 Forewarned is to be fore-armed, the Star now sounds the alarm of the com-10 78 ing crisis in Arizona. The people are 186 65 now awakened to the situation, and unless the same conditions are to pre-26 43 vail in this territory as now obtains in 9 24 Utah, the people must set and in concert irrespective of party.-Tucson 12 15 Star.

The austere days of colonial Connecticut seem to have returned to plague the citizens of New Mexico 5 00 where a bill, "to define the offense of 16 50 libel and affix punishment," recently passed the legislature over the gov ernor's veto, reversing the established principle of law that, innocence is presumed until guilt is established and which is in other respects a prototype of the blue laws of Yankeedom long since regarded a subject of mirthful criticism, and laughed out of ex-28 11 istence. We have a distinct recollection of a law of that territory which required married persons to live together as husband and wife, or suffer imprisonment, and in another instance of a law upon the statute books, ing Taxes to School District where, in a certain precinct of a south-Number 1, County of Pinal, ern county, owners of chickens were enjoined to "stop 'em up" during the gardening season, but the law was inoperative because of the failure of the legislature to provide payment for 6 84 stoppers.—Silver Belt. Many petitions are being circulated in Arizona asking for appointments from President Harrison, Judge Porc. ley, R. E. Sloan and Webster Street are all candidates for the supreme bench of Arizona, and are all firstclass men.-Phenix Gazette. For Sale. Ninety acres of sulfivated land with
